

Student's Journal

Student Name: _____

Date: _____

Part 1: Identity (1 person Team)

Based on the video you just watched, please answer the questions below.

Question	My Response
Choose one of the speakers from the clip you just watched. Identify some of the morals you have in common with that person, as well as some of the differences.	Speaker: In common: (i) (ii) Differences: (i) (ii)

Part 2: Morals

Kindness: You radiate positivity & goodness

Respect: You respect yourself & others , and so have a good self-esteem

Humility: You are not too self-consumed

Honesty: You can be trusted & have a good personality

Hard-work: You work hard to get the best results for your own goals in life

Responsibility: You are responsible & hence can always be relied upon by others

Loyalty: You have the trust & loyalty of others

Patience: Which is key to everything you achieve in life

Forgiving: You are forgiving of others & yourself, allowing everyone to learn and grow

Just: You have a sense of justice & speak out when you see wrongdoing

Tolerant: You respect people’s differences, and know that everyone deserves an equal chance

Compromising: You know when to adapt & adjust, and when the cost of doing so is too high

Family: You understand the importance of family, cooperation, love & respect for all people, and follow the motto “united we stand & divided we fall”

If you lost your memory, which of the above morals would remain with you?	(i) (ii) (iii)
We can have different identities at different times, but our morals always remain the same, even when we do not act on them. When we do act on them, they become stronger. Give an example of a time when you acted on each of the morals you identified? (Example: Compromise – Me and my friend disagreed about how to present some work we were doing. Finally, I realised that his opinion was as valid as mine, and I trusted him to do a good job)	(i) (ii) (iii)